Missouri Council of Administrators of Special Education (MO-CASE)

MO-CASE is a subdivision of the Council of Administrators of Special Education (CASE), a division of the Council for Exceptional Children (CEC), MO-CASE is dedicated to the professional development and support of administrators and supervisors of special education within Missouri's educational settings.

Why Should I Support MO-CASE?

The challenges facing special education must be addressed by an active organization. MO-CASE is committed to seeking solutions to the financial, legal, and programmatic issues that confront special education. Members and supporters of MO-CASE receive information, professional development, networking, collegiality, and resources to better perform their work as special education administrators. National and state legislators and the Department of Elementary and Secondary Education respond to the collective voice of a strong professional organization.

Purpose of MO-CASE

1. To promote professional leadership among special educators.
2. To promote the study of issues common to its members.
3. To communicate information that will assist in the development of improved services for exceptional children in the State of Missouri.
4. To participate actively in the improvement of special education programs in the state of Missouri.

Benefits of MO-CASE

- Networking with experienced educators
- Representation on DESE or other state level committees
- Informed on state and federal issues
- Legislative awareness and advocacy
- Professional development opportunities
- MO-CASE website
- "The Director" MO-CASE's newsletter
- Charles Cummings Scholarship Program
- Reduction in conference registration fees

A member of National CASE in Missouri is a member of MO-CASE. Membership privileges for CASE members include eligibility to hold office, appointment to committee chair positions, attendance at all business meetings, and voting privileges.

Supporter Fee

Your $30 annual supporter fee directly supports the goals of MO-CASE. Fees are used for dissemination of information, statewide committee activities, scholarship awards and conference expenses. In addition, the supporter fee covers the cost of "The Director", the MO-CASE newsletter published four times per year. The support fee is collected annually and may be mailed to:
